

PRESS RELEASE

Guam Office of Public Accountability Christmas Spirit Week

Guam Office of Public Accountability celebrated the holiday by having a Christmas Spirit Week from December 7 to 13. The week started off with the theme It's Beginning to Look Like Christmas, followed by Candy Cane Lane, Santa Claus is Coming to Town, and ended with Baby It's Cold Outside. Throughout the week, the staff came dressed according to the theme of the day.
